

Official Notice From Pangolin Laser Systems, Inc.

Note that Pangolin only makes certain features and benefits available if you purchase from an authorized Pangolin distributor, dealer or retailer. These features and benefits include additional frames, shows, workspace content, music files and accessories that are downloadable at www.PangolinShows.com.

The features and benefits found at PangolinShows.com are separate from the software license that is purchased. They are available at no additional charge, but they are made available only to those who have purchased through authorized channels.

Pangolin believes that these additional benefits add significant and ongoing value to the software license purchased, and Pangolin encourages you to purchase only from authorized channels.

Be sure to look for the banners below to determine which outlets are authorized:
